

A NOTICE AND INVITATION TO ALL EMPLOYEES AND APPLICANTS

Robert G. Frank - President

AFFIRMATIVE ACTION AND EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY POLICY STATEMENT

The University of New Mexico has been and will continue to be an equal opportunity employer. To assure full implementation of this equal employment policy, we will take steps to assure that:

- a. Persons are recruited, hired, assigned and promoted without regard to race, national origin, religion, age, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by local, state, or federal laws, rules, or regulations.
- b. All other personnel actions, such as compensation, benefits, transfers, layoffs and recall from layoffs, access to training, education, tuition assistance and social recreation programs are administered without regard to race, national origin, religion, age, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by local, state, or federal laws, rules, or regulations.
- c. Employees and applicants shall not be subjected to harassment, intimidation, threats, coercion or discrimination because they have: (1) filed a complaint; (2) assisted or participated in an investigation, compliance review, hearing or any other activity related to the administration of any federal, state or local law requiring equal employment opportunity; (3) opposed any act or practice made unlawful by any federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity or (4) exercised any other right protected by federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity.

I have appointed Francie Cordova, Director of the Office of Equal Opportunity, to serve as UNM's EEO Coordinator. The EEO Coordinator will be responsible for the day-to-day implementation and monitoring of UNM's Affirmative Action Plan. As part of that responsibility, the EEO Coordinator will periodically analyze UNM's personnel actions and their effects to ensure compliance with our equal employment policy and administer the audit and reporting system.

If you, as one of our employees or as an applicant for employment, have any questions about this policy or would like to view portions of the Affirmative Action Plan, please contact the EEO Coordinator during regular business hours. This is also a reminder that employees may update their disability or veteran status at any time by contacting the EEO Coordinator, or by directly updating your information in Lobo Web (employee information).

I have reviewed and fully endorse our Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity program. In closing, I ask the continued assistance and support of all UNM employees to attain our objective of equal employment opportunity for all.

Sincerely,

Robert G. Frank
President of the University of New Mexico
