Hate Crimes at UNM

A Hate Crime is a crime committed in whole or in part because of the victim's actual or perceived race, gender, nationality, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion.

Under New Mexico state law, hate crimes are "motivated by hate," meaning the commission of a crime with the intent to commit the crime because of the actual or perceived race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, disability, gender, sexual orientation or gender identity of the victim, whether or not the offender's belief or perception is correct.

If you experience a hate crime at UNM, fill out this form and it will be processed by the Office of Equal Opportunity.
